STATE TOURNAMENT

Of Kentucky Trap Shooters
Closes Yesterday—Last Day of the Target Shoot a Great Success

N. Houston Hall Wins State Championship

The last day of the Kentucky State Target Tournament was held yesterday, under the same ideal weather conditions as existed on Wednesday and the fifty shooters who contested all took care of the opportunity to improve their scores.

Mr. Woolfolk Henderson, of Lexington, Ky., won the Interstate Associations Championship with the score of 97 out of 100 targets. Mr. Thomas H.
Clay, Jr., second with 96 and Mr. Alfred Clay third with 95.

Mr. W. Houston Hall, of this city, again placed himself in the limelight by winning the Kentucky State Championship and carrying off the beautiful $125.00 cup which goes with this event.
Mr. Hall's score was 96 out of the 100 targets which constitutes this classy event.

Mr. S. A. Huntley, was the high amateur for the whole program on the two days shooting, breaking 253 targets out of 400, closely following for second place, came W. Houston Hall and Woolfolk Henderson, with 374 out of 400. Mr. J. R. Taylor of the Winchester per Repeating Arms Co. was the leading professional with the splendid score of 386 out of 400.

Winners of Merchandise Prizes.

Event 1.—One Gillette Safety Razor.
Donated by Gillette Safety Razor Co.,
New York City; J. A. Simpson.

Event 2.—One Ice-Box Cane. Donated by J. C. Pease & Co., Maysville; W. G. Green.

Event 3.—One gallon "Old Time" whisky. Donated by H. E. Fague Distillers Co., Maysville; J. F. Couts.

Event 4.—One Bent's Traveling Bag.

ville. Divided between Bums Martin and Harry Strother.

Event 9.—One Sole Leather Gun
Case. Donated by Powell & Clement, Cincinnati; J. H. Schreck.

Event 10.—One Case "Green River Whisky." Donated by Green River Distilling Co.; Owensboro; Woolfolk Henderson.

Following are the winners in the merchandise prize events:
Twenty-five thousand targets were trapped during the tournament and over $1,000 in prizes given away.

NOTES.

The ladies were there in large numbers and were the biggest attraction at the shoot.

Mr. J. M. Cochran had charge of the office and he certainly does know how.
The traps worked fine and with a couple of minor break downs handled the 25,000 targets perfectly.

The way the boys went after the dinners that Mr. Charles Roemiller served certainly showed that Charles knows how to fix good eats.

Mr. Harry Myers of Covington, was the wit of the shoot. You can always depend on Harry to say something funny at all times.

The Mason County Gun Club desires to thank all those who so generously contributed to the merchandise events and they want to say that those prizes were a great factor towards the success of the Tournament.

"WOMAN SUFFRAGE"

And "Education" Ably Discussed
at M. Olivet By Mrs. Hubbard and Miss Yancey

Mrs. Abner Hubbard, Mrs. Murray Hubbard and Miss Jessie O. Yancey motored to Mt. Olivet Wednesday the 29th. The occasion being an address on Woman's Suffrage by Mrs. Hubbard before the Robertson County Teachers' Institute now in session there. The party was met by County School Superintendent
Mr. Cleveland Moore, Prof. T. C.
Cherry of Bowling Green, a noted educator of the State and a committee of ladies who extended a courteous welcome.

Miss Yancey was introduced by Prof.
Cherry, who spoke of the very emen-service she had rendered, not only to Mason county but the State, and said Dr. McCormick said, "She had done more for Kentucky than any four of her Governors."

Miss Yancey spoke of course along educational lines. She spoke of "Community Building" and urged the organization of neighborhood clubs. The importance of health leagues was impressed. She told of what Mason County had done in establishing Consolidated Schools and what she hoped to do, and showed that Mason County had cause to be proud of her schools as well as her superintendent.

Her talk though brief was full of helpful encouragement to our neighbors of Robertson county.

At the conclusion of Miss Yancey's talk, Mrs. Murray Hubbard of Covington, State Congressional chairman, was introduced by Mr. Cleveland Moore superintendent of Robertson County Schools.

Mrs. Hubbard spoke 15 minutes to a large, attentive and appreciative audience.

She handled her subject in an original forceful and convincing way; her manner is earnest and womanly and the effectiveness of her argument was evidenced by the fact that 73 cards were signed endorsing woman's suffrage.

As this was the first suffrage speech ever made in Robertson county it may be regarded as unusually successful.

Wall paper, rugs and paint at HEN-DRICKSON'S.

The Bracken County Teachers' Institute will meet in Augusta next week.
The program will open Monday morning and about sixty teachers will be present from all parts of the county.

MRS. MICHAEL M. KENNEY

Good Woman Called to Her Reward
Wednesday Evening at the Home of Her Daughter, Mrs. Agnes McNeill in Newport.

Mrs. Margaret Kenney, aged 75 years, died Wednesday night in Newport, Ky., at the home of her daughter, Mrs.
Agnes McNeill, on Putnam street.
She is well known in this city, having lived here for many years at the old homestead on East Forest avenue, just above Broadway.

Her husband, Mr. Michael Kenney employed as C. and O. gate-keeper in the East End, one daughter, Mrs. Agnes McNeill of Newport and two sons, Joe of Converse, Ind., and Edward of Columbus, Ohio, survive her.

The remains will arrive here today at 1:36 p.m. and will be taken direct to the home of her niece, Mrs. D. M. Curry in East Second street.

The funeral services will take place
Saturday morning at 9 o'clock at St.
Patrick's Church with the pastor, Rev.
Father Jones and Assistant Rev. Father O'Dwyer in charge. Burial in the Washington Catholic Cemetery.

D. HECHINGER & CO.

Maysville's Best Clothing and Shoe Store.

In presenting Mr. Henry Dietrich, one of Maysville's most esteemed Citizens, with the Automobile we have but one regret and that is, that we were not financially able to have given away a hundred cars.
Already we are asked, "what are you going to give away next year?" You may rest assured our Senior will again gratify the public. There will be at least ten valuable presents. The list will be published in the near future. All cash purchases beginning Aug. 1st, 1914, will be entitled to tickets on the presents with which we are going to compliment our Patrons.

in Three Wards—Drys Also Active and the War is On

The written application of J. W.
Fitzgerald, et al., petitioners, pray that an election be ordered to take the sense of the legal voters of the City of Maysville as to whether or not the sale of intoxicating liquors shall be prohibited within the City of Maysville, together with deposit for cost of said election was produced and ordered filed. Similar petitions were filed for the Fourth Ward by W. J. Kirwin, et al.; for the Third Ward by John Briscoe, et al.;
and for the Second Ward by A. G. Sul-ser, et al.

Yesterday morning the General Committee of the Mason County Anti-Saloon League met at the First M. E. Church South in this city.

The chairman, W. W. Ball, made a report and from that report it appears the movement for a local option vote in Mason county is in excellent shape.
Neither enthusiasm nor money are wanting for the success of the work.

The following committee, Thos. Dixon, Walter Worthington and Scott Fletcher, with the chairman, W. W. Ball, were authorized to secure legal counsel to look after the interests of the league. All precincts in the county except two, were represented.

It is understood that the sum of $1,500 has been subscribed to aid the "dry" cause.

THE TONIC EFFECT OF

SYMPATHY WITH OTHERS

Some years ago there appeared in the newspapers an open letter in which a suffering and helpless woman asked aid in securing a law to permit invalids pronounced incurable after a medical consultation to be painlessly put to death. Naturally, the letter attracted attention and reawakened the old question whether or not physicians are ever justified in shortening life. It is of interest, then, to note that the writer of the letter now rejoices at the non-fulfillment of her wish. She has lived to experience how much life may hold even in the face of bodily helplessness and how greatly hope brightens prospects which seem at first so unfavorable. She tells of having received thousands of letters from all over the world containing messages of sympathy and approbation for her daring attempt to secure a modification of present-day laws protective of life. Some of these invalids, she says, have since written her of their cure and of their gladness that conservatism and old-fashioned legislation had intervened between themselves and their impatience. One of these correspondents, who was sure that hope was dead for her and who eagerly desired the "finis" at the end of the chapter, has written of her complete recovery and how much more life now means to her since she has "passed through the shadow of the valley of desolation." This correspondence has proved, as might well be expected, a stimulant and a tonic to the invalid. She feels not only that her contact with others has given them a renewed interest in life, but also that even her mistaken suggestion of a revolutionary change in law has not been without its good effect, since it has drawn together in bonds of deep human sympathy, invalids who felt their helplessness yet were helped by the knowledge of their common lot. It was the touch of nature that makes the whole world kin—and kind, says The Journal of the American Medical Association. Probably nothing is more stimulating and genuinely tonic to sufferers, especially those with chronic ailments, than the feeling that in spite of their own helplessness they themselves can still be helpful to others. The Shut-in Society in this country has made life more bearable for many persons who are confined to rooms of their houses. Nothing disturbs a class of patients so much as to be constantly met with those who are in good health and who and whom they can scarcely help but help. To be brought into touch with those from whom they themselves can feel a precious source of consolation and uplift. Pity is a luxury to be enjoyed, but no human being likes to be pitted or to feel that he is an object of pity. To be conscious of some advantage in one's situation over that of others is of itself an alleviation for many sicknesses.

NOT A DAM GOOD SYSTEM.

The Ohio river with a completed system of dams would be navigable all the year around. The chain of dams would make it so, but if four to six years are to be consumed in the building of a single structure, with work on some of the dams not begun, then the day of canalization will be postponed, in all probability, much beyond the time of completion that was forecast when it was decided to prosecute the work as a "continuous project." Courier Journal.

WHEN LIGHT HURTS.

Healthy people that live out of doors rarely complain of the light. But any one who has tried photography knows that out-door daylight is many times brighter than artificial light, indoors or out. When people suffer from artificial lights it is something besides the strength of the light. It is contrast that makes artificial lights unpleasant. One who lives most of the time in poorly lighted rooms finds it unpleasant to go suddenly into bright daylight. The more sudden the change, the greater the contrast, the more disagreeable the feeling. Artificial lights seen at night in sharp contrast with the darkness around them, are always unpleasant to face. A light that varies greatly from instant to instant, now dim now bright, is very disagreeable and harmful to the eyes. When light hurts the eyes the first impulse is to exclude it. But thought about the matter will commonly show some kind of contrast that might be avoided. Have the rooms indoors lighted as well as possible. In going out pause a little on the threshold to become accustomed to the brighter illumination. Do not face bright artificial lights with a dark background. Do not admit a streak of bright sunlight into a room that is otherwise shaded, but rather keep the windows wide open. Use as steady a source of light as possible and avoid all sudden changes of illumination. If dark glasses are worn it should not be all the time; but only when the eyes are exposed to the brightest light; so that the contrast between this and the feeble light may be diminished. Have a good light on what you look at, but do not let the source of light shine directly into your eyes. When light hurts the eyes, in spite of care to avoid strong contrast, it is likely that the eyes are strained, or irritated or inflamed, and the cause of the trouble should be sought out and removed. Persistent trouble of this kind generally has a persistent cause, like strain of the eyes; and it is useless to treat the effect, while the cause continues to keep up the trouble.

THE DAILY NOVELETTE.

The Humorist.

"She married him when he hadn't a cent to his back, Nor a shirt in his purse," Skittercluck.

She was never likely to forget the day that she found a love letter from another woman in his pocket (she had innocently been going through his clothes in search of small change.) It was an old letter, true, written months and months before they were married, still it was a love letter from another woman, and she was never likely to forget the day she found it. As our story opens she is sitting by the dying hearth fire, thinking of it. "John," she said, "you deceived me—you lied to me! You told me that you had never had another love affair, and here, here is a love letter from another woman!" And she had shaken the miserable purple thing hysterically under the handsome Roman nose she had married him for. "You told me never, never!" she cried. "You told me that day in the fields—I remember the very tree we stood under when you told me!" "You did!" he cried. "I did!" "Then prove it—lead me to that tree!" Silently she led the way to the fields and silently pointed out the tree under whose far-flung branches he had told her she was the first woman he ever loved. But with a slow, meaning smile he pointed up to the fluttering leaves. "See!" he said gently. "It is a chestnut tree." It was not until she recovered from her swoon that he could make her see the humor of the thing.—Louisville Times.

REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE FOR CONGRESS

The above is a splendid likeness of H. Glenn Ireland of Olive Hill, Carter county, Ky., a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress from this District.

Mr. Ireland was born in Van Wert county, Ohio, July 12th, 1884, and came to Olive Hill, Ky., April 1st, 1909, and engaged in the crushed stone business as General Manager and part owner of the Highland Stone Company, which position he still holds.

A farmer, banker and business man who has been successful in all his undertakings. He has always taken an active interest in the success of his party but this is the first "offense" in asking for a public office.

Mr. Ireland assures all his friends that if nominated he will put forth every effort to land the Republican party a winner in November.

STATE'S RAT TRAPS.

Health Officer Landis of Cincinnati received 24 large rat traps from the State Board of Health, with the request that these be placed in various locations in that city. The purpose of the State Board, as explained in the letter, is to experiment with the rats to ascertain if they are disease breeders. Accompanying the traps are large metal lined boxes in which the rats are to be placed, probably labeled as to the location in which they were caught, and forwarded to Columbus.

WAR ON RATS.

The war against rats which the Queen and Crescenzo have been waging for several weeks promises to rid the system entirely of the pests, if the campaign now being carried on proves as successful as those just completed. Colonel J. M. Arnold, who was General Agent for the road at Cincinnati for 30 years, now retired, was appointed "special rat destroyer" by Vice President T. T. Powell. He travels from city to city on the road moulching the rodents with a Pasteur virus, which is deadly to rats but harmless to other animals.

"When one rat has been caught and given the virus treatment," Colonel Arnold explains, "we allow him to escape. The virus takes the form of a fatal and extremely contagious disease, and soon all the rats in the neighborhood are infected and die."

FUTURE EVES BALD

Berlin Doctor Draws Pittable Picture of Feminine Deterioration.

Berlin.—The future Eve will be bald, so declared Dr. Broig in the Bulletin Medient.

"In the 30 years of my practice," says Dr. Broig, "I can say, as a result of close observation, that the physique of the new generation of women is slowly but surely undergoing a change. The breast is sinking in, the shoulders becoming more stooped, cold feet are becoming a normal manifestation, the hands are showing a tendency toward a violet or purplish color, the face is becoming smaller, deep wrinkles in the forehead more frequent and the digestion getting worse."

"And that is not all; bloodlessness is affecting the face and skull. The elasticity of the pores is decreasing and the nose is developing more and more."

STEADFAST CONFIDENCE

The Following Statement Should Form Conclusive Proof of Merit to Every Maysville Reader.

Could stronger proof of the merit of any remedy be desired than the state ments of grateful endorser who say their confidence has been undiminished by lapse of time. These are the kind of statements that are appearing constantly in your local papers for Don's Kidney Pills. They are twice told and confirmed with new enthusiasm. Can any reader doubt the following. It's from a Maysville resident.

Mrs. John Wallingford, 108 Commerce St., Maysville, Ky., says: "Several of my neighbors have been cured of kidney trouble by Don's Kidney Pills, and one of my family was also cured of a serious case of kidney complaint after other medicines had failed. Every once in awhile I use Don's Kidney Pills. In that way I keep my kidneys in proper working order and ward off any sign of kidney trouble. I am glad to confirm the statement I gave some years ago, recommending Don's Kidney Pills."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Don's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Wallingford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

OVERFLOWING

With Clergy and Laity is Ruggles Campgrounds—Another Newsy Letter From Our Able Correspondent

Ruggles Campgrounds, July 28, 1914.—The way visitors have swarmed the camp today has caused the Board of Directors to put on their studying caps to figure out some way to take care of all of them. It does begin to look as if more buildings would have to be erected. The popularity of the camp meeting grows. And as long as it is conducted on such sane and religious lines it is sure to continue its growth.

Revs. F. W. Harrop of Latonia, J. D. Haggard and son of Germantown, E. R. Overley of Harrisonville, and J. B. Dover, District Superintendent of the Lexington district are among the day's arrivals.

Rev. E. R. Overley who is accompanied by Mr. Robert Finkner, also of Harrisonville, is here in the interest of Union College. It is likely that Rev. Overley will, instead of taking a pastorate next year, will go out as Field Agent for this college.

Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh of Maysville accompanied by their daughter Mrs. F. W. Thomas and little son, Mad son Walsh, of Pittsburg, came out to day to remain several days. Mrs. Thomas' husband Mr. M. E. Thomas is expected Thursday to spend several days with relatives near here.

Miss Mattie Irvine of Washington is a guest at the cottage of Dr. Irvine. Richard Thomas and Charles Cargel are in camp for a few days.

Just ask Raymond "Teddy" Moss about his new bed-fellow. Ray got in a little late the other night and tumbled into bed without making any investigations. His astonishment knew no bounds when he discovered that some one had been in it—a fine big ter minator of the "dry land" variety. Ray isn't accusing anybody but he has a suspicion nevertheless.

While preparing dinner the other day one of our minister's wives here in "Old Kentucky Home," concluded that some of the other women in the building was burning her beans. She knew what it meant to eat burnt beans so she started over the building to notify the one who was burning her beans. No being able to find the source of the odor at any of her neighbors she returned to her own kitchen to find that her own beans had "gone up in smoke." Next time "charity will begin at home."

Mr. John Dudley Keith brought Rev. Harrop and several other preachers out in his auto today, and they say that after clearing town they only touched the high places.

Miss Rinehart of Manchester, Ohio is the guest of Miss Rena Mae Foyell in the "Old Kentucky Home."

Mr. I. M. Lane has in his possession a bunch of seven keys found on the grounds near the entrance gate on last Saturday night. Among the keys are two evidently belonging to some one with an auto—a wrench to the light, and key to tool box. The owner can have same by calling on Mr. Lane.

Mr. Lane is in receipt today of a special message from Bishop Moore saying he expects to arrive in Maysville Saturday on C. & O. train No. 2 and will be on hand for a big day next Sunday.

Messrs. C. L. Ryans of Covington and Johnston Kelly, J. H. Egan and Arthur Kelly of Fleming county are visitors at the Kelley cottage today.

There is an unusual number of girls here this year and they are lending their assistance to the services, not only by punctual attendance but by singing in the big chorals, which is such a help to the meetings. Now the girls are going to form a campmeeting club for the promotion of the good of the meetings. This is a good move and we trust that not one girl will withhold her membership.

John Broth sailed forth at break of day this a. m. to get a squirrel for his friend Lane. He promptly returned with his game—a chicken hawk. The hotel will serve up the hawk in the best style tomorrow for Col. Lane.

With the Campmeeting Board doing everything possible to find room to put all the preachers, having placed a preacher for every cot in the preachers' tent, an unknown and unwelcome visitor was found in the tent at the close of the evening services. How he ever got in there was beyond comprehension, but there he was, a long-eared, lean, lank, horrible old mule. The mystery is how did he get there. He wasn't there when services began, and as there was but one preacher who went out during service, suspicion is pointing very strongly at him. The old mule had evidently come to stay as the door was closed and his unhesitant seemed to feel at home. What next?

As a prelude to the evening service Dr. Lewis read a letter of greeting from Rev. H. C. Northcott to the campers for this year. Brother Northcott, who is reverently and lovingly called the "Father of Ruggles Campmeeting" is in his ninety third year, and while unable to attend this year, from the tone of the letter read can be seen that he is in the possession of his faculties to a remarkable extent for one of his age. He still maintains a deep interest in the success of the campmeeting, regarding it as one of the great works of his ministry. In his letter he referred to the death a little while ago of his co-laborer in the founding of the campmeeting—Rev. H. J. Ramey. At the conclusion of the letter a motion was put and carried requesting the secretary of the Association with Rev. J. F. Lewis, pastor of Grace M. E. Church, Newport, where Father Northcott holds his membership, to convey to Father Northcott the kindly greetings of the large audience assembled.

What genuine services we have had today! From the early prayer service to the evening evangelistic service, everyone of blessed interest. Rev. Luther Godley led the early prayer service.

At the hour of morning worship Rev. M. T. Chandler of the Cynthiana M. E. Church South, who is spending his vacation here, preached a soul stirring sermon from the text, "The Fire Shall Be Kept Burning Upon the Altar; It Shall Not Go Out." What a great message it was! Everyone in camp is glad that Brother Chandler chose to spend his vacation out here. His association with us has been more than pleasant—can't tell him from one of our own preachers. It is our desire and hope that he come again next year and for many years to come.

As usual Dr. Hinton had a fine audience again this afternoon. He gave the fourth in his series of addresses on Church Life. Each one seems better than the other. Everyone is worthy of hearing and remembering.

The tabernacle was well filled at the evening service. Dr. Lewis preached from the text "When Jesus Comes Shall He Find Faith on the Earth." The spirit of the meeting was good, and all feel encouraged as to the success of the meetings.

It has been frequently remarked that mutual good order prevails this year. Not a drunken man has been seen on the grounds. Surely this is a good place to come. Better influences cannot be found anywhere.

Revs. W. H. Dickerson left the camp to hold a Quarterly Meeting over at Mt. Zion, Lewis county, returning late to night.

Rev. L. D. Dunn of the Foxport Baptist church attended the services today.

WEEKLY SPORT LETTER.

(By C. H. ZUBER.)

Cincinnati, July 29, 1914.

It is certain that the Reds now have passed their weakest period of the season, and that from now on there will be a noticeable improvement in their work over their performances of the past five or six weeks. This statement is made on the strength of the showing made by new players added to the team recently, the holding and hitting of Mulvihill, first baseman, Daniels and Twombly, outfielders, being of so impressive a nature that it is certain they will greatly strengthen the aggregation as soon as they get to working properly with the other members of the team. For a time after the desertion of Marsans and the failure of Habitzell to get into his batting stride matters looked extremely blue for the Reds. However, Manager Herzog was not in the least daunted. He set about securing men to fill the weak spots on the team, and seems to be gradually recruiting the right sort of material for a strong finish. More players will report to the team during the present Eastern trip, so that the followers of the game will have something and better to witness out on Redland Field than was offered them during the recent series of the Reds at home.

While it is reasonable to suppose that the New York team again will win the championship in the National League this year, thereby establishing a new record of four consecutive championships, all the other places in the National League, so far as finishes are concerned, are in doubt.

There's a trans-Atlantic race on between Jess Willard and Carl Morris—doubtful American heavyweights, to see who can reach Jack Johnson first and take away from him the title of heavy-weight champion of the world. Both men feel that they can cap the title, if given the opportunity; and in the present pugilistic frenzy that possesses Europe, there is no doubt that a most advantageous match could be arranged for either man. Of the two Willard looks the better for the reason that he hasn't been in as many fights as Morris, and so has not been defeated as often. So far as size is concerned, either should be able to take the measure of Johnson—but it takes more than beef to make a fighter. It is expected that one or the other will be matched with Johnson during the next few days.

Long distance running races, called as "endurance contests" seems to be in disfavor for the Kentucky tracks for the fall racing season. It is recalled that the four-mile endurance race at Louisville last fall left in its wake a string of disabled nags, with little glory for the winner; and it is feared that an effort to pull off a similar event this year would result in the roughest kind of a farce. For that reason the makers of the programs for the Kentucky fall racing season are confining themselves to the ordinary form of races, and are giving the freak stuff the go-by.

Looks as if the Marathon would be the biggest feature of the Olympic games, to be held in Berlin in 1916. Four countries—each having American trainers, by the way—have already begun has been in progress we've set a new record in expanding the buying power of a dollar. For the significance of the prices we've been quoting lies not merely in the fact that they are low, but that they are quoted on present season Kuppenheimer clothes—merchandise whose value is standard the world round.

No one's bankrupt stock, nothing from a real or imaginary fire, flood or tornado, no million dollar purchase from some poor manufacturer who, pushed to the wall throws up his hands and sells at 25 cents on the dollar.

Every suit offered in this tremendous clearance is guaranteed to be a 1914 summer production from the House of Kuppenheimer, and purchased for our regular stock in the regular way.

$25 Suits—including a specially fine showing of Tuxedo suits in green, black, and navy blue, including a specially fine assortment for around town and business wear. English checks, pin stripes, chalk stripes in greys, blues, browns and blacks, all in original Kuppenheimer styles, now $15.

$18 suits, including many advanced young men's styles in Norfolk, and two-piece summer suits, sea-breeze waists, woven cranes and homespun, now priced at $12.50.

CROP-MOVING MONEY COMING TO KENTUCKY

Washington.—At conferences in the Treasury Department over the distribution of the $34,000,000 crop loan fund the following sums have been tentatively fixed upon for Kentucky loans:

Louisville, $2,300,000.
Lexington, $300,000.
This total of $2,600,000 is less by a million than the sum distributed in Kentucky last year.

ERNST WORKED FOR BRADLEY IN HIS RACE FOR SENATE

Candidate for the Republican Nomination for Senatorship Promptly Brands Statements Made By Chas. M. Striger in a Story

Charles M. Striger, of Covington, inspired a sensational article in the Cincinnati Enquirer Monday in which attacks are made upon Richard P. Ernst, of Covington, who is one of the candidates for the Republican nomination for United States Senator.

These attacks, in the main, consist, first, of a statement to the effect that Mr. Ernst, in 1908, opposed the election of the late Hon. W. O. Bradley as United States Senator, and endeavored to bring about his defeat after he had been given the caucus nomination; and secondly, that the managers of Mr. Ernst's campaign for the Senatorial nomination are endeavoring to create falsely the impression that all of the friends of the late Senator Bradley are now in favor of Mr. Ernst's nomination.

The leader this afternoon called Mr. Ernst over the telephone and asked him if he had anything to say regarding the charge that he had endeavored to bring about Governor Bradley's defeat for United States Senator after he had been given the caucus nomination.

Mr. Ernst said that any such statement was absolutely at variance with the actual facts. He said that, on the contrary, he had advised Republican members of the Legislature to vote and to work for Governor Bradley's election, as Bradley was the regular nominee of the party and as such was entitled to the active support of every loyal party man.

This charge, Mr. Ernst said, was doubtless the outcome of an anonymous story from unfriendly sources which gained circulation at one time and which stated that he (Ernst) had induced O. P. Applegate, a member of the re, to leave Frankfort in order to be present to vote for Bradley. This statement, he said, is absolutely false, and that he would today get it on to that effect from Mr. Applegate, who is a citizen of New

Ernst reiterated the statement majority of the prominent party who were friends and supporters of Senator Bradley during his lifetime are now backing him for the Senatorial nomination, and that he thinks this is sufficient reply to the burden of the Cincinnati Enquirer article referred to.

The bringing of Mrs. Christine Bradley South, a daughter of the late Senator Bradley, into the situation by some of the Republicans who are opposed to Mr. Ernst is considered by politicians in Lexington to be very ill-advised and calculated to result to the advantage of Mr. Ernst among conservative voters in the party.

TO SPEND VACATION ON THE OHIO RIVER

Charles D. Lowrey, district superintendent of schools in Chicago, who has been a guest the past week at the home of his sister, Mrs. Harris Crawford, 5710 Rippey street, is planning to spend the summer with his family on the Ohio River. A boat is now being constructed at the Pittsburgh wharf to carry his family of seven.

Nineteen years ago Mr. Lowrey had a boat fitted up at the local wharf to carry himself and bride on their wedding trip, which proved such an enjoyable outing that they have longed to repeat the journey. Mr. Lowrey's family arrived in the city yesterday and after a visit here of a few days they will all embark on the new boat for their delightful vacation on the Ohio river. The party will cruise slowly and expect to remain on the water until the first of September.—Pittsburgh Herald, July 16.

INDIAN GIRLS

Solve Domestic Problem—Daughters of Chiefs Hire Out in Families As Experiment.

Berkeley, Cal.—Will the advent of the Indian girls into the field of domestic science solve the servant girl problem? As an experiment fifteen Hopi, Shawnee, Wahoo and Pinto maidens, fresh from their ancestral plains in Nevada, have just been brought to Berkeley by Helen Sheahan of the California Indian school and placed in fashionable families to wait on tables, cook and do general servant work. When their summer "vacation" is over they will be returned to the school and when they graduate many will return to Berkeley to take permanent positions.

"The Indian girls are faithful, clean and quick to learn," said Miss Sheahan. "They will make ideal housemaids and may solve the problem of domestic help."

The girls are not only adopting the dress of the "paleface," but they have taken up the latest dances, and spend their recreation hours in doing the tango, hesitation waltz and sometimes also ordinary ragging. They have also assumed American cognomens in preference to their own picturesque names.

Maysville Man Wins Cup For Second Time at Yesterday's Shoot

Kentucky Trap Shooters League Having Great Contest Here

The twelfth annual meeting of the Kentucky Trap Shooters League was opened here yesterday under ideal weather conditions, with the exception of a slight eastern wind which made the targets somewhat erratic at times. There were about fifty-five shooters present from Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, West Virginia and the well-known amateurs, Huntley and Gaults from the Pacific Coast. Supt. Gamble, of the Latonia Gun Club was on hand with his best shooters and they numbered about ten guns. Supt. Gamble is working hard for the next meeting of the Kentucky Trap Shooters League and he says the Latonia Gun Club will give one of the biggest shoots in the country if they will give them the next meeting. Mr. Wm. H. Hall of Maysville, Ky., won the Kentucky State Challenge Cup, a score of 98 out of 100 targets. P. C. Bell, Lexington, Ky., second with 95. Mr. Bell was also High Amateur for the day with a score of 182 out of 200. S. A. Huntley second with 188 and Wm. H. Hall third with 186.

Mr. J. B. Taylor was high professional with a score of 188 and T. H. Fox was second with 187.

There will be no local option election on October 3, as originally planned by the prohibitionists of Campbell county.

LUKE McLUKE SAYS

All men are free and equal. That's why one man balks out the barkeep because the beer isn't cold enough and the other man balks out the barkeep because the beer is too cold.

You can see plenty of Jacob's Ladders when the corn-feds are getting on street cars. But the dear things never use them to climb up to the running board.

The old fashioned woman who used to shoot her husband now has a daughter who shoots her husband's alimony.

Before marriage he tells her he would die for her. After marriage he demands that she never had any intention of working herself to death for her.

When Lovey notices that Hance goes around the house with three days' growth of whiskers on his face even oxygen couldn't revive the poor old Honeymoon.

The Old and the New

Dread-ery fades to a memory when you banish the hot stove, heavy irons and many steps of the old-fashioned ironing day, by using the

G-E Electric Flatiron

Ironing becomes an agreeable task because this iron concentrates the heat on the work, without heating the hand, and stays clean and smooth all the time. Your work is finished quickly and easily with a G-E Iron.

We will gladly demonstrate this household necessity for you. Come and see our complete line of electrical goods.
